Required Reading

Please check to make sure that your child is completing their AR reading.

Students are required to read a minimum of 2 books per quarter. Books should be in the student's reading level. Books outside of the student's reading level must be approved with the classroom teacher.

Missing Homework Slips

Beginning with the 2nd Quarter, missing homework slips will begin counting towards a detention. Students may use homework passes if they have them to prevent getting a homework slip. Please review the homework policy on my website for further information.

All parents are welcome to attend the parade.
